

I do not want Indiana's telephone privacy law to be weakened by proposed FCC regulations that are less stringent. The number of calls I receive from telemarketers has decreased by at least 95% due to the Indiana law.